

Without everyday adventures, the world would certainly be a less interesting place, and if it wasn't for the talent and originality of one man, the Scout Movement might never have existed at all.

This man was Robert Baden-Powell (1857-1941) a soldier, artist, act and free-thinker. Best known for his spirited defence of the small South African township of Mafeking during the Boer War, he was propelled to further fame as the Founder of Scouting in 1907.

There are more than 40 million Scouts, young people and adults, male and female, in over 200 countries and territories. Some 500 million people have been Scouts, including prominent people in every field.

You are soon to be part of our Scout section in the Haworth Group.

There is just a couple of things in this book you need to know, but don't worry, the leaders are here to help!

Turn over to page 3 & 4 to learn about the Scout promise and Scout Law.

The Scout Promise

On my honour, I promise that I will do my best

To do my duty to God and to the Queen,

To help other people

And to keep the Scout Law

There is an alternative Scout promise for those of different faiths and for those who don't follow a faith. You will find out more from your leaders.

The Scout Law

A Scout is to be trusted.

A Scout is loyal.

A Scout is friendly and considerate.

A Scout belongs to the worldwide family of Scouts.

A Scout has courage in all difficulties.

A Scout makes good use of time and is careful of possessions and property.

A Scout has self-respect and respect for others.
